RED HOT FROM Mr. MOTT

Pays His Respects Rather Warmly to Hiram L. Grant.

"I CAN RUN HIM WITH A SWITCH"

Declares That He Does Not Endorse Governor Russell's Course, but Has Opposed It.

A reporter showed Marshall Mott, who is in attendance on the federal court here, the following paragraph from an interview as printed in a morning paper:

"Major Hiram L. Grant, is a man who "speaks out in meeting." He can tell many things. He especially abominates Governor Russell. Here is what he said today: "I have found only one Republican who approves of Russell's course, and that one is Marshall Mott. Russell is the only haven for him to go to. Sheriff Call, of Wilkes told me yesterday that the Democrats would nominate him for solicitor, and that the Populists would endorse him."

After reading the paragraph over carefully, Mr. Mott said: "Grant's interview is a slander. He heard me say in a sleeper on the way from Washington, that I did not endorse Governor Russell's course, and therefore is making this statement, he is knowingly a liar. I can also prove him a coward by running him with a switch, the first time I see him."

"I do not endorse Governor Russell's course, but on the contrary have opposed him; in the scheme nearest his heart, the lease question, I have fought him bitterly. I have had nothing whatever from the hands of Governor Russell's administration, save one $40 appointment, which I secured with the greatest amount of trouble. There are and have been no relations between Governor Russell and myself. The man who deals politically with Avery and Clark, cannot deal with me. I am very fond of Governor Russell personally, but politically we are not in accord."

"The statement accredited Mr. Call that I would be nominated by the Democrats, is startling information to me. The Republican party, in my county and district is, with the exception of less than a half dozen people, my friends, and will stand by me for a renomination for solicitor, without opposition, if I desire it. I am stronger, from a party standpoint, in my county than at any previous time.

"I am sorry to be called into print. I regret this kind of publicity, but cannot allow an old pie hunting alien to make me the subject of an opportunity to get into the press. I am a Republican, honestly and conscientiously, and the party's greatest misfortune in this state has been the affiliation with it of such cattle as this fellow Grant, and there are others. There are many just like him, native as well as alien born.

"I hope your readers will pardon me for taking up so much space in talking about a striped skunk."

A HEAVY CHARGE

Against M. I. & J. C. Stewart While State Printers.

A reporterr learns that one of the serious charges brought against Stewart Bros. for violation of contract as State printers, is that they use 8 point type when the contract called for brevier, and 11 point when it called for small pica. To a printer who is up to date this is amusing, as 8 point is only a latter day name for brevier type, and 11 point is nothing more than small pica, bnt a moss-backed printer who served his day on a country weekly, when a Washington hand press served for a newspaper, job and proof press, knows nothing of 8 or 11 point.

Perhaps it would be well, if these reports are true, for the council of state to attend a night school, where they give lessons in the art of printing.—Winston Journal.

Yes, indeed. it is amusing, and there may be other amusing developments before the show is over. But what's the use? By and by, and it will not be a very sweet day for the aforesaid moss-backs, either, the people will get a whack at the business, and some new points will be added which are not now reckoned in the point system.

Tarheel Excursionists in Washington.

Washington, D. C., Oct. 6.—A party of 500 excursionists from Winston-Salem, N. C., and vicinity, were received by President McKinley at the White House this afternoon.

Situation at New Orleans.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New Orleans, Oct. 7—The reports to the board of health today show two deaths and three new cases at New Orleans.

POINTS FROM HIGH POINT.

Personal and Local Affairs Briefly Mentioned.

TELEGRAM BUREAU, HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 7, '97.

Virginia, the 8 year old daughter of Mrs. A. H. Worth, of Asheboro, died last night at 8 o'clock. Rev. W. Lee Harrill, pastor of the Presbyterian church here, went down this morning to conduct the funeral services.

B. W. Sweet, manager of the Farabee gold mines, returned from Nashville last night.

The work on the Bowling alleys is being rapidiy pushed forward.

The advertising car No. 42, of the Robinson & Franklin Bros., circus arrived this morning and is billing the town and surrounding country for the show Oct. 14th.

R. W. McAlister, and family of Greensboro, passed through this morning, enroute to Asheboro to attend the funeral of Miss Virginia Worth.

We learn that Evangelist J. W. Lee, will be in High Point some time next week, to complete the organization of the anti-saloon league which was formed here during his meetings.

FORGING AHEAD.

New Instruments for the Brockman Orchestra.

The Brockman orchestra, now numbering about twenty members, has received its new instruments and music, and will begin regular practice tonight.

Regular practice will take place once a week hereafter. The orchestra will have complete instrumentation, something seldom found in cities of less than a hundred thousand people. Some fine performances may be looked for from this orchestra later.

Pickard-Chandler.

A beautiful home wedding was solemnized at the residence of Mr. T. M. Pickard, on North Cedar street, at 7 o'clock last night. Miss Mamie Pickard, sister of Messrs. T. M. and W. R. Pickard, was united in marriage to Mr. A. A. Chandler, manager of the leaf tobacco department for J. S. Cobb & Co. Mr. J. E. Howard acted as best man. Rev. Dr. J. H. Weaver performed the ceremony in an impressive manner. It was a pretty home wedding, only a few of the most intimate friends of the contracting parties being present.

The presents were numerous, beautiful and valuble, tokens of the highest esteem of their many friends, and good wishes for a life of unalloyed pleasure and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Chandler left on the 7:50 Mt. Airy train for a short bridal trip to the Mt. Airy White Sulphur springs.

THE TELEGRAM joins in the wish that their connubial barque may always sail o'er a smooth sea and escape the rocks and crags on which so many lives are wrecked.

Almost A Centenarian.

The oldest Methodist preacher in North Carolina, if not in the world is Rev. James Needham, who lives near Mt. Airy. He is now in his 99th year, and if he lives two years longer he will have lived in three centuries. He is in good health, and remarkably full of life and vigor, and preaches yet, with power and fervor. He began preaching when 18 years of age.

You can get some idea of the length of time he has lived and the many and wonderful changes he has lived to see, when you consider the fact that he can remember when there were only four houses in Greensboro.

Baltimore Again the Victor.

Boston, Oct. 6.—The last ball game of the season here, and the third in the Temple Cup series, was as dull and uninteresting a contest as has been seen here for many a day. The Baltimores won with ridiculous ease, and closed their engagement by practically exhausting the pitching talent of the Boston nine. In the three games the new champions' crack twirlers have taken their turns, and for the third successive game the home team was obliged to make a change before the game was over.

The following is the score:

Baltimore	8
Boston	3

A FATAL "LADY OF QUALITY"

Theatre Causes a $700,000 Fire in Detroit

BUSINESS PART OF CITY IN ASHES

Fire Originated from an Explosion of the Calcium Light on the Stage. Other News by Wire.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Detroit, Oct. 7—Seven large buildings, with their contents, were burned this morning in the centre of the business part of the city.

The loss is conservatively estimated at $700,000. The fire was started on the stage of the Detroit opera house by the explosion of a calcium light:.

The ten story structure occupied by the Henry R. Leonard furniture company, the large jewelry establishment of Wright, Kay & Co., and C. H. Mitchell's table supply company were among the largest losers.

The Julia Arthur Dramatic company was playing its first engagement here in "A Lady of Quality."

PLEASED WITH THE REPORT.

Grand Jury's Failure to Indict Lynchers Suits Ohio.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 7. — The grand jury, which has been investigating the "Click" Mitchell's lynching, reports that it has been unable to obtain evidence which would warrant it in returning an indictment against any person or persons. The people of Urbana are much pleased with the report. Few had any idea thal it would be different.

Held up an Express Train.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Kansas City, Oct. 7—The Chicago and Altoona express was held up by robbers, six miles from here, last night. Three masked men stopped the Chicago and St. Louis express at Evanston by placing torpedoes on the track and robbed the engineer, fireman, conductor and passengers. An unsuccessful attempt was made to blow open the expess messenger's safe.

Results of Good Work.

The Fishblate-Katz-Rankin Co., high art clothiers, have been working hard during the past few days preparing for their fall trade, and have on exhibition one of the most complete lines of clothing in the state. Their hat department cannot be surpassed. They extend a cordial invitation to the public to give them a call.

Prisoners Shackled in a Burning Jail.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Opelika, Ala., Oct. 7—Two prisoners, shackled to the floor, were burned to death by fire in the jail here last night. The structure was of pine and burned rapidly. The prisoners were James Ferguson and Alonzo Bennett. The building was totally destroyed, the loss being $10,000.

Has Not Stopped Running Yet.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 7.—The whereabouts of Henry Diehl, one of Sheriff Martin's deputies, who so mysteriously disappeared the day of the striking miners shooting, has has not been discovered. His wife and children are in poverty.

Chinese Commander Arrives.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 7.— Commander A. V. Chin, of the Chinese navy, was a passenger on the Hamburg-American liner Prussia, which arrived today from Hamburg. He is on his way home after visiting foreign naval plants.

Fur Cap the Death of its Wearer.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Tuckahoe, N. Y. Oct. 7.—Mistaking the fur cap of Jim Gaterio, a quarry man at the St. Clair quarry company, for a woodchuck, a hunter named Hugh Aikens, fired a breech loading rifle at it and instantly killed Gatenio.

Today's Consular Appointments.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 7—The president today appointed the following consuls: Rufus Flemming, of Ohio, consul to Edinburgh, Scotland; Samuel A. McAllister, of Delaware, consul to Barbadoes, West Indies.

Ruppert Has Not Withdrawn.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 7.—Col. Jacob Ruppert emphatically denied today that he had withdrawn from his place on the Democratic ticket as a candidate for president of the municipal council.

FOREST FIRES RAGING.

Reports of Whole Families Perishing in the Flames.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, Oct. 7.—Reports received here from many sections of Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan show great suffering from drouth and forest fires. Many fields have been swept away by the flames. All kinds of measures are adopted to stay the advance of the fire and farmers are fighting the advance of the flames night and day. They say that the fires are the worst that have occurred since 1877. Manitoba reports much suffering and loss.

A report from Morris, Manitoba, says a prairie fire is raging there and a family of four persons perished in the flames.

The fire is supposed to have originated from an engine spark. Many others are reported burned to death.

Street Improvement.

The picks, shovels and scrapers have been busy on S. Spring street, for several days and that thoroughfare is going through a desirable change. The hill just south of West Market has been cut down, and the street now presents a very inviting appearance, for vehicles of all kinds. The workman moved yesterday to the opposite hill, at the juncture of Washington and Spring Streets.

In the process of grading, however the gas pipe along Spring street, and the water pipe which leads to the hydrant at the corner of Sycamore and Spring, were unearthed, and will have to be lowered several feet.

More Gold Coming.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 7—A hundred thousand pounds in American Eagles was withdrawn from the Bank of England today for shipment to the United States.

Endorsing the Chicago Platform.

New York, Oct. 6.—The Democratic conventions now being held in New York State, generally endorse the Chicago platform.

AN INTELLIGENT SUFFRAGE.

Anomolous conditions must always necessitate anomolous remedies. The greatest reverence is due the political philosophy of the founders of the American Republic. That they digged deeply, laid broadly, founded wisely the structure reared upon their foundation is sufficient proof; so far as may be, there should be close adherence to the principles they enunciated—principles that the stress of great emergencies have tried and justified.

Innovation is always dangerous and it is most dangerous to a republic because there is no bar to it save the conservatism of the citizen body. That there is a great deal of conservatism in the American people, has been demonstrated; that there is too much conservatism has been, and is daily being, demonstrated in certain particulars.

It is a basic tenet of our theory of government that every citizen has an equal voice in the government. Will it be contended that as a matter of practical application, such is the case? Might not contingencies, unforseen, of Washington or Jefferson, necessitate a partial departure from this tenet? Suppose that the voting body should suddenly be swelled by the addition of thousands of voters utterly ignorant of all government and the easy prey and unresisting tools of designing politicians; would it still be the course of wisdom to allow this body of men to wield a power they did not and could not understand? If trial should be given them and it was found that they were a constant menace to law and order and stability, should the trial be prolonged indefinitely? If found to be an obstacle to all progress in themselves or others should there be no effort to remove the obstacle?

This is no hyphothetical case; it is statement of southern conditions today; an epitome of a quarter of a century of southern history. The south has been patient, careful, helpful, charitable. There can be no charge of haste or indiscretion. She shouldered a responsibility, not of her own making, without a murmur; she was cast into the sea with a mill stone about her neck and told to sink or swim; it has required heroic efforts to keep her head above water, but she has done so thus far. But the struggle has been sufficiently prolonged. Mankind, civilization, the republic cannot justly ask her to support the dead weight one hour longer.

We believe that the time has come when this state, at least, should shake herself free from the encumbrance. Not numbers, but intelligence, probity, character, these are the elements that make a state; they are elements that support it, defend it, uphold it; they have a right to demand that their efforts shall not be brought to naught by the ignorant and the vicious. It is the privilege, nay more, it is the duty of intelligence to take forethought for ignorance; it has the right to expect that when it has taken such forethought, it may not be rendered fruitless.

Does any one doubt that the great number of ignorant voters in this State is a menace? Then he must be a poor observer of passing events. And the remedy? Simply a refusal on the part of the State to allow any man to participate in its government who cannot give evidences of being able to do so intelligently. The man who at this day does not think enough of himself to learn to read and write proves thereby his unfitness to govern himself or to have any voice, however slight, in shaping the policy of his State.

If it be urged that an educational qualification attached to the ballot means partial disfranchisement, we grant it. Disfranchisement of the ignorant and irresponsible voter, irrespective of race, is the only way out of an intolerable condition. If it be urged that such a course is subversive of certain principles of our government, we reply that the present course is, in its tendency, subversive of every principle of our government or any other.

No amount of individual ignorance aggregated can constitute or give rise to wisdom. Foolishness is all the more foolish in the company of fools. Every man is not expected to know everything before he exercises the right of suffrage; every man should be expected to know somewhat at least. Of the rule of the ignorant, the vicious, the purchasable, the stupid plolitical dupe, the. rif-raff we have had enough, and more than enough. Let us have done with them at the first opportunity, once for all; have done with them that we may set our faces toward other and better things than the turmoil of political fights, dirty, dangerous and incessant.

Unpleasant things to say, and unpleasant to hear, but we think amply justified by past history and present circumstances.

THE inclination of Congressman Linney to tell how it will all happen, seems to indicate a desire to change his alias "The Bull of the Brushies," for the more classic one, "The Prophet of the Great Smoky."

IF those of our exchanges that have been telling the farmer why cotton is low, will take a fresh tack and tell him how to make it higher, the information will meet with a heartier reception.

WITH Henry George and David B. Hill both using the phrase, "I am a Democrat," the ordinary man may be pardoned for some haziness in recognizing a Democrat when he meets him.

MR. CROKER went into Tammany Hall to explain how calm and serene all things were between him and Mr. Sheehan, but Mr. Sheehan, like bre'r rabbit, lay low and said nothing.

AFTER raising the customary tempest in a teapot Greece suddenly decides that after all she will accept the terms of peace and not thrash Turkey afresh.

GENERAL WEYLER'S declaration that he will not resign probably means that he considers himself on the civil service list.

The Ideal Woman.

The ladies' column of the Paris Galignani contains the following feminine contribution:

"It is amusing to read men's opinions on what they call 'the ideal woman.' Here is a sample of them: According to Mr. Frankford Moore the ideal woman 'must have no history, no story. She takes her rights by not talking of them, wears a reasonable-sized hat at the matinee, can make a salad, choose a joint of beef, does not place before her husband the stale remains of a former feast, but eats them herself and suffers in silence.' But Mr. Moore and a number of male critics seem to forget that the ideal woman must be dressed; although they would not publicly acknowledge it, they prefer her in a well made gown and bonnet rather than arrayed in cheap article bought at some cheap shop." And then the writer goes on to tell the ideal women where she can find all the formers in Paris.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A. Day by Gracie Waddy by deed dated August 28th, 1889, recorded in book 84, page 659.

This sale will be made subject to the approval of the Court, and will be immediately reported to the Court for confirmation.

This 1st day of Oct. 1897.

R. D. DOUGLAS,
Commissioner.

GENERAL NEWS IN A NUTSHELL.

President McKinley's portrait will be painted by Benzinger.

The cost of providing for the subsistence of the army last year was $1,-972,702.

A slot machine that will register letters will be tested in the New York postoffice.

The fall term of the United States Supreme Court will begin next Monday with a docket of 466 cases.

Hayti may endeavor to negotiate a loan of $6,000,000 in the United States to put its currency system on a gold basis.

President McKinley is expected to attend the annual dinner of the New York Chamber of Commerce November 23.

Major William H. Garland, of Hampton, Va., who is 98 years of age, called on Mayor Strong, of New York, yesterday.

Barney Barnato, the Kaffir king, who committed suicide in June last by jumping from a schooner at sea, left a fortune of £963,865.

Three members of the new Spanish cabinet have figured in the records of the State Department, namely, Sagasta, Moret and Gullon.

Premier Sagasta, in an interview, said the new Spanish cabinet will carry out its political and military program with firmness and sagacity.

Daniel Donegan, the collector of Tammany, has resigned because of the great decrease in the number of contributors to the society's campaign fund.

The Spanish-Cuban situation was considered by the cabinet yesterday in connection with a dispatch from Minister Woodford, but no action was taken.

Attorney-General McKenna says the Union Pacific Railroad will be sold to the highest bidder, and the government is not restricted to the offer of the reorganization committee.

Harrison R. Williams, ex-United States consul at San Jore, Costa Rica, who arrived in New York, brought the news that President Iglesias, of Costa Risa, has declared himself dictator.

A new York savings bank has brought suit to foreclose mortgages aggregating $75,000 upon St. Leo's Catholic church and rectory in that city, of which Rev. Thomas J. Ducey is pastor.

The New York Clearing house association will require banks not included in its membership, but which clear through members of the association, to make statements every Monday of their daily condition.

The name of Thomas Moore, the famous Irish poet, was omitted from the roll inscribed on the walls of the new Congressional Library because the poet wrote insulting verses about America and Thomas Jefferson.

The State Fair.

On account of the North Carolina State Agricultural Fair at Raleigh, the Southern Railway will sell tickets on October 16, 17, 18, 19, 22 and 23 at rate of one first-class limited fare for the round trip, plus 50cts. for one admission to the fair grounds. The fare from Greensboro will be $3.15.

On October 20th and 21st, special tickets will be sold from this city for $2.40, which also includes one admission to the fair grounds.

Attorney W. C. Douglas says that Judge Purnell has extended until October 15th, the time for the State to file an answer in the Western Union Telegraph rate case. This is the injunction case which comes up at Wilmington. It will be the original answer to the bill in equity.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Gen. James D. Glenn, left on the morning vestibule going south.

R. W. Brooks went to Asheboro this morning on a business trip.

Cicero Groome, of this county, went up to Winston today to sell tobacco.

W. A. Hall went to Fayetteville this morning and will be gone several days.

R. M. Rice, the oil man, went away on the east bound train this morning.

Lieutenant-Governor Reynolds returned home on the Winston train last night.

J. J. Johnson, proprietor of the Alliance store at Richmond, Chatham county, is in the city.

Rev. Livingston Johnson left this morning to attend Sandy Creek Association at Brush Creek church, Chatham county.

Prof. J. M. Bandy went to Brown Summit this morning, to design a bridge, to be erected over Reedy Fork creek, at Fulk's Mill.

O. L. Naylor, of the C. F. & Y. V. road, is in the city today, buying furniture. He will move in a few days from Jonesboro to Mt. Airy.

Sheriff Monroe, of Rowan county, came over yesterday, accompanied by his daughter, who entered the Normal and Industrial College today.

Prof. W. T. Whitsett, of Whitsett Institute, spent last night in the city and returned home this morning. He brough this sister up to enter the Normal and Industrial College.

John McCreary, of Smoak & McCreary, Winston, was here this morning going to Norfolk to attend the races. He is a first-class judge of horse flesh and we wouldn't be surprised if he carries some good horses back to Winston with him.

Figures For Pot Hunters.

Lord Grey, to believe English sport news, has just accomplished the greatest hunting exploit of his life by killing nearly one thousand grouse within two days. His 28 years' gun record amounts to 316,699 head of game, among which figure 121,190 pheasants, 89,401 partridges 47,468 grouse, 26,747 rabbits, 26,417 hares, 2,735 woodcock, 2,077 snipe, 1,393 ducks, 381 deer, 97 boars, 12 buffaloes, 11 tigers and 2 rhinoceros. Twenty-eight years, embracing about ten thousand days, would, therefore, have accorded Lord Grey the laborious but no doubt highly interesting enjoyment of an average booty of thirty game per day.

Pointer and Patchen Against Time.

Ottumwa, Ia., Oct. 5.—Seven thousand people saw Star Pointer and Joe Patchen go against their own records at William's mile track, today. Star Pointer turned the track in 2:1¼, against a strong head wind, blowing up the stretch. Owner Murphy says that considering the conditions, it is the fastest mile, ever made by Pointer, Patchen started out well, turning the half in 1 minute flat, but a second running horse which picked them up at the three quarter pole became unruly and scared Patchen, who finished the mile in 2:04. Time by quarters: Pointer, 30½; 1:00½; 1:30½; 2:01¼. Patchen, 31; 1:00; 1:30½; 2:04.

BRADSHAW, Att'y.

Endorsed and commended by best known Physicians of the country. "Two-fold throughout, thereby creating an inter-air space," which affords complete protection from draughts or sudden chills, warmer, softer, with no irritation to the skin, more elastic, better fitting and with less weight than single fabric underwear. Manufactured from finest selected and hand-sorted Australian Lamb's Wool. Adopted for wear to Men, Ladies and Children, and surpassing in protection to the person—comfort and pleasure to the wearer—any goods heretofore offered to the public.

We bought a quantity of these garments last season, and sold every garment, all of them to Greensboro citizens, and before buying this season, we have been personally to see every customer for these goods, and they all without hesitation say that it is the nicest underwear it has ever been their good fortune to secure. They also informed us that they would furnish us with letters if we desired.

On the strength of this we have purchased a large lot of these goods, and we will be glad to have you call and examine them. Your opinion is worth much to us, whether you wish to buy or not.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

A number of changes are made in today's advertisements. Read them all.

Workmen are repairing the eaves over W. B. Farrer & Son's jewelry store in the Tate building.

Twelve car loads of fine beef cattle passed through here on the early morning fast freight going north.

The enterprising firm of Bray Bros, tobacconists, are laying water pipes into their factory, next to the Banner Warehouse.

The handsome residence of E. J. Stafford, corner of south Spring and West Washington street, is fast nearing completion.

Blandwood avenue has been extended from Walker avenue northward, passing in the rear of Mayor Nelson's residence to West Sycamore.

If you want to see a beauty, call and take a look at Jos. J. Stone's new job press, just received from Barnhart Bros. & Spindler. It is a little "dandy" and the "prettiest thing in town."

J. W. Winfree, a prominent insurance man of Richmnod, Va., is in the city with a view of locating here as manager of this territory for one of the best old line insurance companies.

A man called at the McAdoo last night to say he had just been knocked down and robbed of $40 by four negro men, between the McAdoo and the depot. He then walked quietly out and has not been seen since.

There is nothing like bracing up, if you do it with the right stuff. A stiff shirt helps out along this line, and you feel better when you have on a nice clean one. Read the Steam Laundry advertisement in this paper.

A mule drawing a load of trunks from the depot to the Normal and Industrial College last night took a notion to shake things up a bit and ran away, and as the negro driver said: "Scattered trunks frum heah clean to de Normal."

All the hotels in Greensboro were filled last night, and people were turned away. At the Benbow guests were lodged in the parlors for want of room. People who could not get accommodations at the hotels hunted up boarding houses.

News has been received here that J. W. Smith who forged a check on C. M. Vanstory & Co. last spring and also one on J. C. Welch, of High Point, had been arrested at Spartanburg, S. C., and sent up for seven years for similar conduct down there.

We regret very much to learn of the serious illness, of Mrs. J. L. Allen in Fayetteville, mother of Mrs. Will C. Dodson, of this city. Mrs. Dodson is with her, and with careful nursing and the best of attention, we hope soon to announce her permanent recovery.

We are informed that the Keeley Institute will move into their new quarters at Blandwood, on West Washington street next week. Aside from the sanitarium features, and the work the institute is doing for humanity, their home is delightfully situated for a summer hotel.

The ladies of West Market street church are preparing to give a musical concert at an early date for the benefit of the organ fund of that church. A prominent member of the University glee club has consented to sing on this occasion. A splendid program will be presented. THE TELEGRAM will make further announcements in due time.

A horse belonging to J. Van Lindley, hitched to a spring wagon, was left standing on South Elm street today about twelve o'clock. Thinking times were a little dull he dashed away at a rapid gait and just before reaching the railroad the wagon overturned smashing the dashboard and seat and breaking the singletree. The horse was held up just beyond the track.

For several nights a crowd of boys have been viewing the Show in West's park from the top of the Fishblate-Katz-Rankin building. Several times they have been called down by the owner, Rev. Dr. Grissom, and yesterday the only way to get up there was nailed up, but this did not deter the boys. Last night the fastenings were broken away and they viewed the show as usual. This is high-handed business, and the matter has been reported to the police. A man or a boy who is guilty of this, is no better than a thief or a robber, and should be dealt with as such.

To Our City Subscribers.

If you have subscribed for THE TELEGRAM and don't get it, or receive it irregular, please let us know. Send us word, drop us a postal, phone or call at the office and inform us of the fact. We will be sorry for the mistake having occurred and will try to remedy it.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

A marshal's ball will be given at the Yarboro House, Raleigh, on Friday night of fair week.

Two neighbors in Salisbury beat each other up because one accused the other of stealing his fire-wood.

The following fourth class postmasters were appointed yesterday in North Carolina: Aurora, R. H. Lane; Wilkesboro; Milton McNeil; Whiteville, James D. Maultsby.

It is announced that Senator Butler will speak at Alamance fair, Burlington, October 14; Rocky Mount fair, Friday, October 15, and Alexander, Bertie county, October 16.

The W. Duke branch, of the American tobacco company, was closed yesterday on account of the death of Maj. Lewis Ginter, whose funeral took place yesterday.—Durham Herald.

The ranks of the Lynchites or "Sanctified Band," at Southport, are being recruited quite largely. More "arks" loaded with their followers are arriving there. It is said that these people are afraid to go any further South, and so will abide at Southport.

Auditor Ayer was asked why it was that he was not able to get the State paper from Stewart Bros., the "ex"-public printers, while Loge Harris got it so quickly. Ayer replied that it was because he had instructed Loge to get the paper under claim and delivery proceedings.

Permission has been granted the Elizabeth City battalion of Naval Reserves to temporarily leave the State. They will attend the fair at Norfolk next week. On the 12th instant the company will hold an election to choose a successor to Wm. J. Griffin, lieutenant commanding the division. who was drowned recently.

Joseph Terry, the old man who was convicted of purjury in the Hester-Robertson case, paid the costs yesterday and was given his liberty. Judge Robinson agreed to free him from his sentence provided he pay the costs. The other perjurer, Tom Hester, has taken an appeal. He was sentenced to the roads for three years. — News and Observer.

Each one Separate.

If each lump of coal was separate, with legs to walk on and arms to wash and brush itself clean, it would be just a little cleaner, and could get into your cellar just a little easier than it does at present. Mind you, only just a little. We think we have the cleanest and best coal ever mined, and that we deliver it as carefully and promptly as it can be done. We should be glad to have your opinion and we'll treat you fairly.

Autumn Winds are Blowing Now, and some of them will prove too piercing to allow of going without a top coat. A light overcoat is indispensable at this season of the year for those who wish to avoid coughs, colds and pneumonia, that sudden changes of temperature bring. We have the latest styles in cut and fabric and are selling them at prices less than your cold will cost you.

It's Shocking

to see the soiled linen that a man who isn't neat in dress will sometimes wear, when for so little money he can look as if he came out of a bandbox. It's a mistake! We will keep you looking like a gentleman for a whole week for less than you spend on soda water or beer, if you bring your linen to the up-to-date Steam Laundry.
